Interesting to Farmers.-A successful veterinary operation was performed a few days ago. Mr Thos. Bousfield, of Musgrave, was called in to twin calves, full grown and joined together between the haunch and femur bones. Both of the calves died soon after birth, but the cow is doing well, The joining of the calves was perfect, but birth without separation was absolutely impossible.

The Barnard Castle National Schools .-The sermons in the Parish Church, on Sunday last, were in behalf of the above schools. The Rev. Canon Brown, in the morning, in the course of an admirable discourse, referred to the standing of the schools. He said that their financial position was on a secure basis, and the number of scholars continued to increase. The master and mistress were assiduous in the performance of their duties, and the managers in consideration thereof, bad this year added a bonus to their salaries. The Inspectors who had visited the schools, and examined the children, had reported very favourably, and altogether the condition of the schools was of a most gratifying character.

Harwood Primitive Methodist Chapel.-On Saturday, October 15th, a public meeting was held at the Primitive Methodist Chapel, Harwood, Middleton-in-Teesdale Circuit, when addresses were de-livered by Miss Mary Nattrass, of Wearbead, Weardale, the well-known popular lady preacher and revivalist, and Rev. George Armstrong, of Middletor. The chair was occupied by Mr Featherstone Race, of Geo. Armstrong, and in the evening by Miss Nattrass.

British Infant School, Barnard Castle.-On Friday last the scholars were treated to tea and spice buns by the committee and other friends of the school. There are over two hundred names on the books, and of these one hundred and eighty-four assembled, when several members of the committee, with some ladies who had kindly taken part in preable CATTLE: -3 present calving cows, 17 spring paring, distributed the welcome provision, and "the calving cows and beifers, 7 geld cows, 21 one-and-a-cup that obsers." The visitors were impressed with calving cows and heifers, 7 geld cows, 21 one-and a-balf year old builocks, 10 one-and-a-balf year old heifers, 1 yearling bull, 1 bull calf, 14 black-faced ewes, 4 half-bred do. small a cost so much pleasure can be given to the young, it would be a welcome departure from ordinary work if more of our schools had a treat, when teachers, committee, ladies and friends might together create first lively expectation, and then genuine satisfaction. Credit is due to Mrs Stephenson, the teacher, and her staff, for the excellent way in which all the arrangements were carried out.

> Barnard Castle Mission School.—This is purely unsectarian institution established for the very poorest class of children some 15 years ago. Ita teachers are Congregationalists, Primitive Methodists, and Wesleyans. No. of scholars on the books 60; average attendance, 35. No anniversary having been held since April 1875, the balance due to the treasurer has somewhat accumulated. It was thought advisable by the teachers, that an anniversary should be held, which was celebrated on Sunday afternoon Oct. 23rd. in the Primitive Methodist Chapel, kindly granted for the occasion, which was full. Mr Howson presided and conducted the devotional part of the service, Mr Middleton, one of the teachers, examined the scholars on the life of "Joseph." A varied programme was gone through, consisting of recitations by the children, and the singing of a number obymns, Mr W. Thompson presiding at the harmonium. A collection was taken at the close amounting to £2 10s. 6d. leaving the balance due to the treasurer

> Independent Order of Good Templars.-The "John Wycliffe" Lodge held a coffee supper on Friday night October 21st, in the Temperance Hall, Temperance addresses were delivered by Mr Howson (who presided), and Mr Howden. A good programme was rendered consisting of songs, duets, freadings, and recitations. There was a good spread for supper, and the company which was excellent did their duty and enjoyed their repast. Mr J. J. Walker presided at the American Organ. The choir consisted of Mrs Wray, Mrs J. J. Walker, Miss Watkinson, Miss Howden, Miss Lancaster, Miss Jackson, Mr J. J. Walker, Mr Wandless, and Mr Jas. Davis. The readers and reciters were Miss Roberts, Miss Lancaster, Mr Wandless, Mr J. Parkinson, Mr J. W. Reah, and Mr J. Davis. The following ladies
